Franklin Chapter

Michael Barton

My name is Michael Barton. I was raised in a Christian home as the eldest of two boys, but for many years I struggled to find my own walk with the Lord. It wasn't until I was married with three children and the Lord led me from Auckland to Northland to work on a farm that my relationship with Him became real and personal. Since then, I have had the privilege of ministering in Africa, Fiji, and India, including remote communities where we were the first white people many had ever seen. Today, I also serve alongside my brother through Breath of Life Ministries, and my wife often joins me on mission trips when the Lord makes a way for us to travel together.

I have a deep love for God's Word and a passion for searching out the treasures hidden within the Scriptures and sharing them with others. My brother jokingly calls me a theologian, but my heart is simply to help people discover the depth, wonder, and truth of God's Word. I am grateful for the gifts of the Holy Spirit that God has entrusted to me and seek to use them faithfully to encourage, equip, and strengthen His people wherever He opens the door.
